About Boston International Newcomers Academy (BINcA)

Boston International Newcomers Academy is a Boston Public School that embraces new immigrant adolescent English Language Learners and their families. The Newcomers Academy is comprised entirely of students who have come to the U.S. in the past year.

Public Transportation:

BINcA is less than a five-minute walk from the 21 bus route or a 20-minute walk from the 22 and 28 bus routes. It is a five-minute walk from the Morton Street Commuter Rail stop or a 20-minute walk from the Red Line.

Parking:

Non-metered street parking is available on Maxwell Street and surrounding side streets, but be mindful of the signs with scheduled street cleaning days.

Accessibility:

BINcA's main entrance is up a flight of stairs and does not have a wheelchair ramp. The Writers' Room is located down a flight of stairs. There is no elevator available.

A single-occupancy, unisex/gender-neutral restroom is located up a flight of stairs next to BINcA's Front Office.

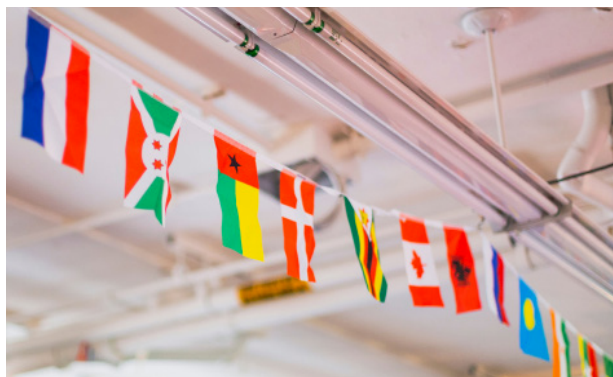

A water fountain and a kitchen with a refrigerator and microwave are available for volunteers.

Check-In Procedure:

Enter the school on Maxwell Street, using the doors toward the right side of the building labelled "Visitor's Entrance." The doorbell is located to the left of the entrance. Visitors must sign in using the guest binder in the Front Office. The Front Office is the first door on your right after entering the building.

The Writers' Room is located downstairs in Room 015. From the Front Office, take a right and then go down the stairs at the end of the hall. The Writers' Room is the first classroom to your right.

Local Favorites for Coffee or Lunch:

Prestige Cuisine serves Caribbean food. It's located on the corner of Morton Street and Selden Street at 924 Morton Street.

Morton's Pizza serves pizza, sandwiches, and salads. It's located on the corner of Morton Street and Evans Street at 898 Morton Street.
